DETAILED ACTION

Claims 1-7 and 10-18 are pending in the application and were examined on their merits.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

Claims 1, 4-5, 7-12 and 17-18 are remain rejected under 35 USC 103(a) as being unpatentable over Borud et al. (EP 0487 480 A2) for the reasons of record.

Claim 6 remains rejected under 35 USC 103(a) as being unpatentable over Borud as applied to claims 1, 4-5 and 7-12 above and further in view of Pearce et al. (1983) or Bryant et al. (1976) for the reasons of record.

Claims 13-16 are rejected under 35 USC 103(a) as being unpatentable over Borud as applied to claims 1, 4-5 and 7-12 above, and further in view of Ryan et al. (WO 99/01474) for the reasons of record.

Applicant's arguments pertaining to these rejections were fully considered, but not found persuasive.

Applicant principally argues that because the prior art uses stronger acids and additional ingredients, that the claims are thus not made obvious by the references or combination of references.

Again, the claims state 'comprising' which is open language which allows for the inclusion of additional steps not instantly recited in the claims.

Further, it remains deemed that the choice of acid would have been a matter of judicious selection on the part of the ordinary artisan. It is noted that the claims simply state purification of a proteinase inhibitor. There are several known proteinase inhibitors in potatoes and adjustment of parameters such as pH and salt concentration in order to extract these inhibitors would have been well within the scientific purview of the ordinary artisan at the time the invention was made.

From the teachings of the references, it is apparent that one of ordinary skill in the art would have had a reasonable expectation of success in producing the claimed invention. Therefore, the invention as a whole was prima facie obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made, as evidenced by the references, especially in the absence of evidence to the contrary.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.

No Claims are allowed.
